GEORGE J. LONG'S THREE-YEAR-OLD SCORES IMPRESSIVELY AT LATONIA.

J. C. Milam's Horses, Fresh from a Rest at Lexing. ton, Take Two Purses-Track Still a Bit Soft, but Improving Rapidly.

Cincinnati, O., May 31.—Small fields were again the rule at Latonia this afternoon. The track was still a bit soft, but improved as the afternoon progressed. There were no outstanding features, and good sport resulted from most of the contests. The altowance race at one mile and seventy yards introduced a quintet of three-year-olds, including the Latonia Derby eligibles, Free Lance and Presumption. The former made a splendid showing by an impressive victory and now looms up as a dangerous factor in the big event to be decided on June 8. Presumption was a sharp factor for the first three-quarters, but tired thereafter as if disliking to go a long distance.

J. C. Milam, who freshened his horses at Lexington while the Churchill Downs meeting was going on scored a double during the afternoon with Frederick I. and his old campaigner, Merrick, Incidentally, it marked the fifty-fifth success for Merrick, Frederick I. was the medium for an attempted betring coup on the occasion of a former start at Charleston, S. C., but he failed on that occasion. He never left the result in doubt this afternoon and won commandingly. Both the Milam horses were handled by jockey Shilling.

Speculators fared well, as most of the winners came from the short-ords class.

During the afternoon Worth and Sir Denrah were worked a mile, going the distance in 1:45.

Martin Nathanson, who will officiate as racing secretary, handicapper and associate judge on the Utah-Montana circuit, was among today's visitors and will remain several days in the interest of the associations he represents. Ten stakes are listed to be run on the tracks at which he will serve as an official and horsenen are responding liberally with entres.

Seventeen betting booths were operated this after-

Seventeen betting booths were operated this afternoon.

Seventeen betting booths were operated this afternoon.

The patronage this afternoon was again of large proportions and in excess of expectations. The betting was spirited.

Before leaving for New York, Dr. W. A. McEnery tried to persuade J. W. May to accompany him to be the proportion of the persuade J. W. May to accompany him to be lead and and ultimately to Germany, where Onelda and Forward will be sent after a brief campaign in England. It is Dr. McEnery's intention while in England to secure among other horses a long distance racer, which he will import to this country with a view of winning the Kentucky Endurance Stakes next fall. He has authorized J. W. May to take a subscription to the Endurance Stakes in his behalf and he will make an effort to secure in Lengland a racer good enough to win the big prize. Matt J. Winn will leave tomorrow night for Iouisville to take up the supervision of the many contemplated improvements at Churchill Downs. He will return here to witness the running of the Lationia Derby on June 8.

Another big batch of horses arrived today from Louisville and the consignments included part of the division trained by W. H. Karrick.

Only a few horses were worked this morning. The best trials were:

Buckhorn—Three-quarters in 1:7%.

Foundation—Half mile in 51.

J. W. Carter—Five-eighths in 1:07,

Leamence—Three-quarters in 1:23.

Prick—Three-quarters in 1:23.

Spring Board—Five-eighths in 1:05,

Stauley H.—Five-eighths in 1:075.

MOVE FOR THE PARI-MUTHELS.

New Orleans Business Interests to Back Second Plan for Re-establishment of Racing.

New Orleans La., May 31.—An Executive Committee, consisting of five prominent New Orleans Business representatives, met yesterday to formulate the terms of a bill which will be presented to the General Assembly, and which will provide for the re-establishment of racing, under the supervision of a commission of three, appointed by the Governor. The bill will prohibit bookmaking and will legalize betting by the pari-mutuel system.

The Baton Rouge correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, in commenting on the Introduction of a bill by Representative Labarre in the Legislature for a Louisiana racing commission of three members, to be appointed for four years by the Governor, the adoption of the provisions of the bill being left to a majority vote of the people of New Orleans or any other city or parish, says:

"Labarre's move was unexpected, and it came as a sensation to the Orleans delegation. They may have been thinking about racing, but the Labarre bill does not represent them. It is his own measure, He stated during his campaign that if elected he would offer a bill submitting the matter to the people of New Orleans for their vote. He made good his election pledge, if nothing more. Representative Joseph E. Generelly, floor leader of the Orleans delegation, did not hesitate to deny any knowledge or connection with the Labarre bill. You may say, he replied, 'that I know absolutely nothing about the Labarre racing bill, and that the Orleans delegation, as a delegation, knows nothing. It is his personal bill.' Other members from Orleans were even more outspoken. They do not appreciate the Labarre move. 'It is a home rule measure,' said Mr. Labarre, in support of his proposition. 'It provides every safeguard.'

"The bill is a lengthy one. The racing commission, including rentals, etc., to be limited to $3,660 per year.

"No one association would be allowed to conduct more than forty days of racing during any year and not more than three associations would be granted rights in the same year. May, June, July, August act, can only be exercised act, can only be exercised and a majority of the votes shall have believed and a majority of the votes shall be presented to the proper parochial or municipal authorities, signed by at least 5 per cent of the total registered voters, a special election may be called, sobmitting to the voters the question whether there shall be racing under the direction of the racing commission.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE CLIPSETTA STAKES

The Clipsetta Stakes will be run at Latonia today for the thirtieth time. It was named in honor of a speedy filly by Springbok—Eclipsa, which, as a two-year-old in 1882, decidedly impressed the turfmen of that time by winning the Louisville Ladies Stakes and the Tennessee Stakes at Louisville and the Coquette Stakes at St. Louis, more especially since in the Tennessee Stakes she defeated such crack colts as Bondholder and Ascender, to say nothing of the subsequent Kentucky Oaks winner, Vera. In its long history its alonor list of winners is embellished with the names of such subsequently famous racers as Eva S., Wanda, Huntress, Flyaway, Ethel, Myrtle Harkness, Rush, Endurance by Right and Lady Savoy, while such other celebrities as Wary, Valuable, Hypocrite, Princess Rowling, Dafsy F., Greenwich, La Belle, Fay S., Eugenia Wickes, Martha H., Uarda and Silk Maid could do no better than run to places in contesting its decision.

JOCKEY TRUEBEL'S CASE ON TRIAL.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—The Canadian Racing Associations was made a joint defendant with the Ontario Jockey Club by a motion before Mr. Justice Latchford in the Weekly Court in an action brought by John K. Truebel, a Jockey, who claims unstated damages because he alleges defendants refused him the license required to ride on tracks within the Jurisdiction of the aforementioned association.

"He was training to ride Heresy, the winner of the King's Plate," Mr. John G. White, his counsel, told Justice Latchford, "Before the race came on he was refused a license."

"I suppose there was a reason," commented the judge.

JOCKEY TRUEBEL'S CASE ON TRIAL.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—The Canadian Racing Associations was made a joint defendant with the Ontario Jockey Club by a motion before Mr. Justice Latchford in the Weekly Court in an action brought by John K. Truebel, a jockey, who claims unstated damages because he alleges defendants refused him the license required to ride on tracks within the justicition of the aforementioned association.

"He was training to ride Heresy, the winner of the King's Plate," Mr. John G. White, his counsel, told Justice Latchford, "Before the race came on he was refused a license,"

"I suppose there was a reason," commented the judge.

"We have been given none." answered Mr. White.
"And so you claim that his prospects have been plated for life and that his prospects have been vined for life and that his prospects have been blasted," continued the judge, reading from the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation he acquired elsewhere?" Most assuredly," answered counsel, "and the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation he acquired elsewhere?" Most assuredly, answered counsel, "and the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation he acquired elsewhere?" Most assuredly, answered counsel, "and the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation he acquired elsewhere?" Most assuredly, answered counsel, and the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation has been and consensus the fine plate of the writ. "Had the plaintiff a reputation has a corporate body. There are five or six members, however, and some of them reside in New York and diso be difficult."

It is Lordship then granted the motion, naming J. E. Seagram as defendant for the Canadian Racing, defendant instead, representations having been made that Mr. Seagram is not well.

NOTABLE MEETING PROMISED

ROYALTY WILL PATRONIZE BLUE BONNETS RACING SCHEDULED TO BEGIN TODAY.

Track Heavy from Long Wet Spell, but Sunshine Is Predicted for Opening-Sol Lichenstein to Join Ranks of Layers at Canadian Course.

Montreal, Que., May 31.—After a long continued rainy spell, the weather man's forecast for tomorrow is for bright sunshine for Montreal and vicinity, so the Montreal Jockey Club should have a fine opening of its spring meeting of 1912. Despite the heavy track, an evenly-balanced card has been provided. Of the seven races, the feature will be the annual running of the Windsor Hotel Cup, a dash of mile and an eighth, in which some of the best horses here are named to start. Most of them are good mud runners, so there should be but few withdrawais.

The club has decided to put on two mutuel machines this spring. The French system will be used, which is entirely different from that in vogue at Toronto and on the Kentucky tracks. The layers will also be on hand and about twenty-five will be in line. Among those who have already asked for positions are C. Walters, Sol Lichtenstein, T. J. Shaw, J. Shelly, P. J. McInerney, J. Mellinger, I. Hammerschlag, Eole Pearsail, Bob Kennedy, Roy Offutt, Max Marks, Henry Hanf, Al Hanf, M. C. Lewis, John Lewis, George Hickey, David Nicholson, Ed Colell, J. Sheehan, Henry Haines and P J. McGrath.

Like at Woodbine, the meeting at Blue Bonnets this spring will be a great except vinetion for the Offatt, Max Marks, Henry Hanf, Al Hanf, M. C. Lewis, John Lewis, George Hickey, David Nicholson, Ed Coiell, J. Sheehan, Henry Haines and P J. McGrath.

Like at Woodbine, the meeting at Blue Bonnets this spring will be a great society function for the reason that their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, will be in attendance daily. The inaugural running of the Connaught Cup will be one of the big attractions of the meeting and, as at Toronto, the race is exclusively for Cadanian-owned horses. All that is needed to make the meeting a record one in point of attendance is fine weather.

The minimum value of the purses this year will be $500, with $600 and $700 handicaps daily. Five stakes will be run during the meeting, besides the Wilson Challenge Cup.

Larry Carey, agent for the Beverwyck Stable, arrived today. At the conclusion of the Woodbine meeting he went to the Chesterbrook Stud of Capt. E. B. Cassatt in Pennsylvania to arrange for the shipment of Sir John Johnson to Hamilton. The horse will leave Chesterbrook on Sunday. Dave Woodford will prepare Sir John Johnson for the fail meetings. Mr. Carey reports, the horse as being in grand condition. The other Beverwyck Stable horses that were sent on from Toronto arrived here in fine condition.

Sol Lichenstein has decided to join the layers here. It will be his first visit to Canada, and with his well known reputation as a big operator he is likely to have a large following on the circuit. Hugh Penny vesterday added the gelding Supervisor to his string. He puchased the half-brother to Superstition from William Garth, Green K. Morris also increased his string by the addition of Arbutus, which he purchased from Archie Zimmer. Albert Simons arrived yesterday from the Brook-dale Farm of Harry Payne Whitney. He brought twelve horses with him, eleven of which are the property of Mrs. Fayne Whitney, and they will carry he colors at the different meetings in Canada. All of the horse stilipping well.

WORK IN BEHALF OF ST. LOUIS TRACK.

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—Provision for an advisory committee of twenty-five to complete the collection of a fund of $100,000 for reviving an annual St. Louis Fair, under the auspices of the Universal Exposition Company, was made at a banquet attended by 200 St. Louisans at the clubhouse of the Universal Exposition Company at Maxwellton, St. Louis County, The committee is to soon be appointed by Cyrus F. Blanke, president of the Universal Exposition Company.

The motion for the appointment of the committee was made by Goodney Figure 1.

County. The committee is to soon be appointed by Cyrus F, Blanke, president of the Universal Exposition Company.

The motion for the appointment of the committee was made by Goodman King, a leader in the Conventions Bureau, and seconded by Frederick C. Lake, secretary of B. Nugent & Bro. Dry Goods Company.

The plans for raising the fund of $100,000 contemplate 200 subscriptions of $500 each. Of this number 123 have already been obtained. Three persons subscribed $500 each at the banquet Goodman King, Charles F. Wenneker and James Houchin, candidate for the Democratic homination for governor. The committee with have the work of raising the remaining seventy-four subscriptions.

It is planned to install on the site at Maxwellton a mile track for horse racing and an automobile speedway. Both these are to be served by a concrete grandstand, which the officials expect to have ready in sixty days. It was also announced that a lake for aquatic sports and demonstrations would form one of the attractions.

The arrangements for raising the fund formed the conclusion of an elaborate program of set speeches which discussed the annual fair in all its aspects, with special reference to the Agricultural and Mechanical Fair which was held for many years in St. Louis.

The toastmaster was A. O. Rule, real estate man.

chanical Fair which was held for many years in St. Louis.

The toastmaster was A. O. Rule, real estate man. The speakers included Cyrus F. Blankes, David R. Francis, Rolla Wells, Mayor Kreismann, and numerous other prominent St. Louis cittzens,

Two speakers dwelt expressly on the live stock features which the new enterprise would offer, Loseph A. Murphy, general manager of the Universal Exposition Company, told that it was projected to make a live stock exposition the initial attraction for the fair. He told that at a recent meeting of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association aid was promised to make the live stock exposition an extraordinary event. Col. John I. Martin declared the new enterprise would tend to revive clean horse racing in St. Louis, which, he asserted, would be of great benefit to the city.

NADZU TAKES PURSE AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash. May 31.—Only two favorites scored at Alan this afternoon, but the races furnished plenty of excitement as the finishes were all close. Nadzu won the mile race which was run to suit him. Daddy Glp and Lieut. Sawyer were both under restraint for the first three-quarters and when Hofman called on the former in the stretch, he failed to respond. Gross allowed Lieut. Sawyer to go extremely wide throughout the final quarter. Nadzu finished on the rail.

Whidden, favorite in the fifth, was far back in the early part of the race, but rushed up on the far turn, then faltered, but came once more in the stretch with a tremendous rush.

Eye White scored a lucky win in the sixth. When the leaders turned into the stretch, they all rain wide, while Eye White kept close to the rail and thereby scored. Eye White was bid up $200 by W. S. Heath, but retained by W. H. Fizer.

STAKES FOR MONTANA FAIR.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

It is rumored that the Brighton Beach race track soon will be turned into a baseball park for semi-professional games.

J. C. Milam has sold his two-year-old colt, Luther, to Dr. G. W. Miller, of Detroit. Luther is a brother to High Private.

The half-mile track at Valleyfield, Que., forty miles from Montreal, is expected to provide opportunity for the half-milers during the week beginning June 15. The second Delorimier Park meeting is announced for the seven days beginning July 20.

Amoret, which was severely injured by being kicked at the post at Alan recently, is getting along nicely. The track veterinary found some broken glass in his left hock. The horse kicked through a car window while being unloaded at Alan after his long trip across the continent.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

I. N. L., Jacksonville, Fla. Apiaster paid $5.80 to $1 at Toronto May 21. C. H. K., Cincinnati, O. You are right. The extention to Mary Rudd was a blunder that had been corrected. Thanks.

J. C. D., Louisville, Ky. It will be bookmaking at Montreal, although a mutuel machine or two may be used in an experimental way.

$1,017 was the gross winning power of Collyer's "How to Beat the Mutuels," covering the ENTIRE MEETING at Louisville. Deducting the gross losses, a recapitulation shows that the system earned a trifle more than $21 per day. The publisher of this paper, with whom a copy of "How to Beat the Mutuels" was filed, has verified the above statement.

PLAYED EVERY RACE.

The value of this system, which never before was sold, is shown by the fact that there was no hop skipping about, no selection of soft spots, but ON THE CONTRARY, IN ORDER TO GIVE "HOW TO BEAT THE MUTUELS" A SEVERE TEST, every race (1 said EVERY RACE), from the inaugural dash on opening day until the sixth race on CLOSING DAY was played, and the limit played at any one time was $30.

SAFE, SANE, CONSISTENT.

In a word the system, which is the product of my own brains, bears the same relation to racing as did the art of handicapping during the haleyon days of "Pittsburg Phil," Riley Grannan, etal. No mathematical problems to figure, no doping, just a conservative business system. A SANE, S A F E. CONSISTENT, DEPENDABLE, METHOD OF BEATING THE MUTUELS.

SPECIAL—For one week—ONLY—I will place this system on the market for the nominal sum of $10. Remember—ONE WEEK. Those who received system—FREE—with Louisville subscription will kindly send stamped envelope for additional instructions. Rush: your subscription—NOW. Once again, "How to Beat the Mutuels," is placed on the market for $10—for one week—ONLY.
